National Golf Day 2020 Set for May 5-6 in D.C. - Registration is Open

Mark your calendars...National Golf Day 2020 is set for May 5-6, 2020.

To register to attend the golf industry's most high profile government affairs event, CLICK HERE.

This is the 13th annual National Golf Day and you are invited to join fellow GCBAA Members along with other golf-affiliated associations, industry partners, and others working with We Are Golf.

National Golf Day has successfully increased awareness of the golf industry on Capitol Hill, in the White House and among Federal Agencies in Washington, D.C. Our goal is to engage the most influential Members of Congress during our visit, and to further increase the recognition of this day nationally.

To reach our goal, it is vital to have prominent members of the golf industry join us in our Nation's Capital. Accordingly, we would like for you to join your golf industry colleagues on Wednesday, May 6, for National Golf Day.

National Golf Day attendees are also encouraged to participate in a community service initiative on the National Mall the morning of Tuesday, May 5. The initiative will focus on beautification, preservation and assisting the National Park Service with deferred turf and grounds maintenance.
